Item 4 - Advisory Business

General Information

Wolfstich Capital, LLC (“Wolfstich Capital”) was formed in 2007 and provides financial planning and portfolio management services to its clients.

Theodore J. Wolfstich is the sole principal owner of Wolfstich Capital. Please see Brochure Supplement, Exhibit A, for more information on Mr. Wolfstich.

As of December 31, 2016, Wolfstich Capital managed $82,663,100 on a discretionary basis, and $1,610,042 of assets on a non-discretionary basis.

SERVICES PROVIDED

At the outset of each client relationship, Wolfstich Capital spends time with the client, asking questions, discussing the client’s investment experience and financial circumstances, and broadly identifying major goals of the client.

Clients may elect to retain Wolfstich Capital to prepare a full financial plan. This written report is presented to the client for consideration. In most cases, clients subsequently retain Wolfstich Capital to manage the investment portfolio on an ongoing basis.

For those financial planning clients making this election, and for other clients who do not need financial planning but retain Wolfstich Capital for portfolio management services, based on all the information initially gathered, Wolfstich Capital generally develops with each client:

- a financial outline for the client based on the client’s financial circumstances and goals, and the client’s risk tolerance level (the “Financial Profile” or “Profile”); and
- the client’s investment objectives and guidelines (the “Investment Plan” or “Plan”).

The Financial Profile is a reflection of the client’s current financial picture and a look to the future goals of the client. The Investment Plan outlines the types of investments Wolfstich Capital will make or recommend on behalf of the client to meet those goals. The Profile and the Plan are discussed regularly with each client, but are not necessarily written documents.

Finally, where Wolfstich Capital provides only limited financial planning or general consulting services, Wolfstich Capital will work with the client to prepare an appropriate summary of the specific project(s) to the extent necessary or advisable under the circumstances.

With respect to any account for which Wolfstich Capital meets the definition of a fiduciary under Department of Labor rules, Wolfstich Capital acknowledges that both Wolfstich Capital and its Related Persons are acting as fiduciaries. Additional disclosure may be found elsewhere in this Brochure or in the written agreement between Wolfstich Capital and Client.

Financial Planning

One of the services offered by Wolfstich Capital is financial planning, described below. This service may be provided as a stand-alone service, or may be coupled with ongoing portfolio management.

Financial planning may include advice that addresses one or more areas of a client's financial situation, such as estate planning, risk management, budgeting and cash flow controls, retirement planning, education funding, and investment portfolio design. Depending on a client's particular situation, financial planning may include some or all of the following:

- Gathering factual information concerning the client's personal and financial situation;
- Assisting the client in establishing financial goals and objectives;
- Analyzing the client's present situation and anticipated future activities in light of the client's financial goals and objectives;
- Identifying problems foreseen in the accomplishment of these financial goals and objectives and offering alternative solutions to the problems;
- Making recommendations to help achieve retirement plan goals and objectives;
- Designing an investment portfolio to help meet the goals and objectives of the client;
- Providing estate planning;
- Assessing risk and reviewing basic health, life and disability insurance needs; or
- Reviewing goals and objectives and measuring progress toward these goals.

Once financial planning advice is given, the client may choose to have Wolfstich Capital implement the client's financial plan and manage the investment portfolio on an ongoing basis. However, the client is under no obligation to act upon any of the recommendations made by Wolfstich Capital under a financial planning engagement and/or engage the services of any recommended professional.

Portfolio Management

As described above, at the beginning of a client relationship, Wolfstich Capital meets with the client, gathers information, and performs research and analysis as necessary to develop the client's Investment Plan. The Investment Plan will be updated from time to time when requested by the client, or when determined to be necessary or advisable by Wolfstich Capital based on updates to the client's financial or other circumstances. This process usually includes, but may not be limited to: analyzing existing assets, including allocation among asset classes; suggesting changes in the allocation of assets; and selecting specific securities designed to assist the Client in meeting his or her stated goals and objectives.

To implement the client's Investment Plan, Wolfstich Capital will manage the client's investment portfolio on a discretionary basis.¹ As a discretionary investment adviser, Wolfstich Capital will have the authority to supervise and direct the portfolio without prior consultation with the client.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, clients may impose certain written restrictions on Wolfstich Capital in the management of their investment portfolios, such as prohibiting the inclusion of certain types of investments in an investment portfolio or prohibiting the sale of certain investments held in the account at the commencement of the relationship. Each client should note, however, that restrictions imposed by a client may adversely affect the composition and performance of the client's investment portfolio. Each client should also note that his or her investment portfolio is treated individually by giving consideration to each purchase or sale for the client's account. For these and other reasons, performance of client investment portfolios within the same investment objectives, goals and/or risk tolerance may differ and clients should not expect that the composition or performance of their investment portfolios would necessarily be consistent with similar clients of Wolfstich Capital.

¹ Certain legacy accounts are managed on a non-discretionary basis. However, Wolfstich Capital no longer offers non-discretionary arrangements.

Item 5 - Fees and Compensation

General Fee Information

Fees paid to Wolfstich Capital are exclusive of all custodial and transaction costs paid to the client's custodian, brokers or other third party consultants. Please see Item 12 - Brokerage Practices for additional information. Fees paid to Wolfstich Capital are also separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds, ETFs (exchange traded funds) or other investment pools to their shareholders (generally including a management fee and fund expenses, as described in each fund's prospectus or offering materials). The client should review all fees charged by funds, brokers, Wolfstich Capital and others to fully understand the total amount of fees paid by the client for investment and financial-related services.

Financial Planning Fees

Financial planning services are generally provided on a fixed fee basis, typically ranging from $2,000 - $6,000, for an analysis and subsequent plan. The actual cost depends on the nature and complexity of each client's circumstances.

One half of the total estimated fixed fee is due and payable at the time the client's agreement is executed, the remainder of the fee is due upon presentation of a plan. Financial plans will be presented to the clients within 90 days of the contract date, provided that all information needed to prepare the financial plan has been promptly provided by the clients.

Portfolio Management Fees

The annual fee schedule², based on a percentage of assets under management, is as follows:

First $1,000,000	1.00%
Next $1,000,000	0.50%

The full account value is billed at the fee indicated. There is no minimum portfolio value but the minimum quarterly fee is $1,000. Wolfstich Capital may, at its discretion, make exceptions to the foregoing or negotiate special fee arrangements where Wolfstich Capital deems it appropriate under the circumstances.

Portfolio management fees are generally payable quarterly, in advance. If management begins after the start of a quarter, fees will be prorated accordingly. With client authorization and unless other arrangements are made, fees are normally debited directly from client account(s).

Either Wolfstich Capital or the client may terminate their Investment Management Agreement at any time, subject to any written notice requirements in the agreement. In the event of termination, any paid but unearned fees will be promptly refunded to the client based on the number of days that the account was managed, and any fees due to Wolfstich Capital from the client will be invoiced or deducted from the client's account prior to termination.

² Certain legacy accounts may be subject to a different fixed fee arrangement, as outlined in the applicable written agreements with such clients.

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Wolfstich Capital does not have any performance-based fee arrangements. “Side-by-Side Management” refers to a situation in which the same firm manages accounts that are billed based on a percentage of assets under management and at the same time manages other accounts for which fees are assessed on a performance fee basis. Because Wolfstich Capital has no performance-based fee accounts, it has no side-by-side management.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

Wolfstich Capital serves individuals, trusts, estates and charitable organizations. With some exceptions, the minimum quarterly fee is $1,000. Under certain circumstances and in its sole discretion, Wolfstich Capital may negotiate such minimums.

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

In accordance with the Investment Plan for each client, Wolfstich Capital designs a portfolio, consisting of some combination of mutual funds and ETFs (exchange traded funds). Mutual funds and ETFs are generally evaluated and selected based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, past performance, fee structure, portfolio manager, fund sponsor, overall ratings for safety and returns, and other factors.

Wolfstich Capital’s strategic approach is to invest each portfolio in accordance with the Plan that has been developed specifically for each client. Wolfstich Capital is generally a long-term investor, meaning that securities are generally purchased with the expectation that the value of those securities will grow over a relatively long period of time, generally greater than one year.

Risk of Loss

While Wolfstich Capital seeks to diversify clients’ investment portfolios across various asset classes consistent with their Investment Plans in an effort to reduce risk of loss, all investment portfolios are subject to risks. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that client investment portfolios will be able to fully meet their investment objectives and goals, or that investments will not lose money.

Below is a description of several of the principal risks that client investment portfolios face.

Management Risks. While Wolfstich Capital manages client investment portfolios based on Wolfstich Capital’s experience, research and proprietary methods, the value of client investment portfolios will change daily based on the performance of the underlying securities in which they are invested. Accordingly, client investment portfolios are subject to the risk that Wolfstich Capital or a Third Party Advisor allocates client assets to individual securities and/or asset classes that are adversely affected by unanticipated market movements, and the risk that Wolfstich Capital’s specific investment choices could underperform their relevant indexes.

Risks of Investments in Mutual Funds, ETFs and Other Investment Pools. As described above, Wolfstich Capital may invest client portfolios in mutual funds, ETFs and other investment pools (“pooled investment funds”). Investments in pooled investment funds are generally less risky than investing in individual securities because of their diversified portfolios; however, these investments are still subject to risks associated with the markets in which they invest. In addition, pooled investment funds’ success will be related to the skills of their particular managers and their performance in managing their funds. Pooled investment funds are also subject to risks due to regulatory restrictions applicable to registered investment companies under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Equity Market Risks. Wolfstich Capital may invest portions of client assets directly into equity investments, generally utilizing pooled investment funds that invest in the stock market. As noted above, while pooled investments have diversified portfolios that may make them less risky than investments in individual securities, funds that invest in stocks and other equity securities are nevertheless subject to the risks of the stock market. These risks include, without limitation, the risks that stock values will decline due to daily fluctuations in the markets, and that stock values will decline over longer periods (e.g., bear markets) due to general market declines in the stock prices for all companies, regardless of any individual security's prospects.

Fixed Income Risks. Either Wolfstich Capital may invest portions of client assets directly into fixed income instruments, such as bonds and notes, or may invest in pooled investment funds that invest in bonds and notes. While investing in fixed income instruments, either directly or through pooled investment funds, is generally less volatile than investing in stock (equity) markets, fixed income investments nevertheless are subject to risks. These risks include, without limitation, interest rate risks (risks that changes in interest rates will devalue the investments), credit risks (risks of default by borrowers), or maturity risk (risks that bonds or notes will change value from the time of issuance to maturity).

Foreign Securities Risks. Wolfstich Capital may invest portions of client assets into pooled investment funds that invest internationally. While foreign investments are important to the diversification of client investment portfolios, they carry risks that may be different from U.S. investments. For example, foreign investments may not be subject to uniform audit, financial reporting or disclosure standards, practices or requirements comparable to those found in the U.S. Foreign investments are also subject to foreign withholding taxes and the risk of adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations. Finally, foreign investments may involve currency risk, which is the risk that the value of the foreign security will decrease due to changes in the relative value of the U.S. dollar and the security's underlying foreign currency.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to a client's evaluation of Wolfstich Capital or the integrity of Wolfstich Capital's management. Wolfstich Capital has no disciplinary events to report.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Michael Broad, an Investment Adviser Representative of Wolfstich Capital, is also sole proprietor of an independent registered investment adviser licensed under his name. He provides advisory services to a few legacy clients of this separate advisory firm.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics and Personal Trading

Wolfstich Capital has adopted a Code of Ethics ("the Code"), the full text of which is available to you upon request. Wolfstich Capital's Code has several goals. First, the Code is designed to assist Wolfstich Capital in complying with applicable laws and regulations governing its investment advisory business. Under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Wolfstich Capital owes fiduciary duties to its clients. Pursuant to these fiduciary duties, the Code requires persons associated with Wolfstich Capital (managers, officers and employees) to act with honesty, good faith and fair dealing in working with clients. In addition, the Code prohibits such associated persons from trading or otherwise acting on insider information.

Next, the Code sets forth guidelines for professional standards for Wolfstich Capital's associated persons. Under the Code's Professional Standards, Wolfstich Capital expects its associated persons to put the interests of its clients first, ahead of personal interests. In this regard, Wolfstich Capital associated persons are not to take inappropriate advantage of their positions in relation to Wolfstich Capital clients.

Third, the Code sets forth policies and procedures to monitor and review the personal trading activities of associated persons. From time to time, Wolfstich Capital's associated persons may invest in the same securities recommended to clients. Under its Code, Wolfstich Capital has adopted procedures designed to reduce or eliminate conflicts of interest that this could potentially cause. The Code's personal trading policies include procedures for limitations on personal securities transactions of associated persons, reporting and review of such trading. These policies are designed to discourage and prohibit personal trading that would disadvantage clients. The Code also provides for disciplinary action as appropriate for violations.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

Because client accounts are invested almost exclusively in open-end mutual funds, there is little opportunity for a conflict of interest between personal trades by Wolfstich Capital associated persons and trades in client accounts, even when such accounts invest in the same securities. However, in the event of other identified potential trading conflicts of interest, Wolfstich Capital's goal is to place client interests first.

Consistent with the foregoing, Wolfstich Capital maintains policies regarding participation in initial public offerings ("IPOs") and private placements to comply with applicable laws and avoid conflicts with client transactions. If an associated person or Wolfstich Capital wishes to participate in an IPO or invest in a private placement, he or she must submit a pre-clearance request and obtain the approval of the Chief Compliance Officer.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

Best Execution and Benefits of Brokerage Selection

When given discretion to select the brokerage firm that will execute orders in client accounts, Wolfstich Capital seeks "best execution" for client trades, which is a combination of a number of factors, including, without limitation, quality of execution, services provided and commission rates. Therefore, Wolfstich Capital may use or recommend the use of brokers who do not charge the lowest available commission in the recognition of research and securities transaction services, or quality of execution. Research services received with transactions may include proprietary or third party research (or any combination), and may be used in servicing any or all of Wolfstich Capital's clients. Therefore, research services received may not be used for the account for which the particular transaction was effected.

Wolfstich Capital participates in the institutional advisor program (the "Program") offered by TD Ameritrade Institutional, a division of TD Ameritrade Inc., member FINRA/SIPC/NFA ("TD Ameritrade"). TD Ameritrade offers its Program to independent investment advisers. The Program includes such services as custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. Wolfstich Capital receives some benefits from TD Ameritrade through its participation in the Program. Wolfstich Capital is independently owned and operated and is not affiliated with TD Ameritrade.

Wolfstich Capital recommends TD Ameritrade to clients for custody and brokerage services. While there is no direct link between Wolfstich Capital's participation in the Program and the investment advice it gives to its clients, through its participation in the Program Wolfstich Capital receives economic benefits that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits generally include, without limitation, the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving Program participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to Wolfstich Capital by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also pay for business consulting and professional services received by Wolfstich Capital's related persons. These services are not soft dollar arrangements, but are part of the institutional platform offered by TD Ameritrade.

Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the Program may benefit Wolfstich Capital but may not directly benefit its client accounts. These products or services may assist Wolfstich Capital in managing and administering client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help Wolfstich Capital manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by Wolfstich Capital or its personnel through participation in the Program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, Wolfstich Capital endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by Wolfstich Capital or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence Wolfstich Capital's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

Directed Brokerage

Clients may direct Wolfstich Capital to use a particular broker for custodial or transaction services on behalf of the client's portfolio. In directed brokerage arrangements, the client is responsible for negotiating the commission rates and other fees to be paid to the broker. Accordingly, a client who directs brokerage should consider whether such designation may result in certain costs or disadvantages to the client, either because the client may pay higher commissions or obtain less favorable execution, or the designation limits the investment options available to the client.

The arrangement that Wolfstich Capital has with TD Ameritrade is designed to maximize efficiency and to be cost effective. By directing brokerage arrangements, the client acknowledges that these economies of scale and levels of efficiency are generally compromised when alternative brokers are used. While every effort is made to treat clients fairly over time, the fact that a client chooses to use the brokerage and/or custodial services of these alternative service providers can in fact result in a certain degree of delay in executing trades for their account(s) and otherwise adversely affect management of their account(s).

By directing Wolfstich Capital to use a specific broker or dealer, clients who are subject to ERISA confirm and agree with Wolfstich Capital that they have the authority to make the direction, that there are no provisions in any client or plan document which are inconsistent with the direction, that the brokerage and other goods and services provided by the broker or dealer through the brokerage transactions are provided solely to and for the benefit of the client's plan, plan participants and their beneficiaries, that the amount paid for the brokerage and other services have been determined by the client and the plan to be reasonable, that any expenses paid by the broker on behalf of the plan are expenses that the plan would otherwise be obligated to pay, and that the specific broker or dealer is not a party in interest of the client or the plan as defined under applicable ERISA regulations.

Aggregated Trade Policy

WCM typically directs trading in individual client accounts as and when trades are appropriate based on the client's Investment Plan, without regard to activity in other client accounts.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts

Managed portfolios are reviewed periodically (usually quarterly), but may be reviewed more often if requested by the client, upon receipt of information material to the management of the portfolio, or at any time such review is deemed necessary or advisable by Wolfstich Capital. These factors generally include but are not limited to, the following: change in general client circumstances (marriage, divorce, retirement); or economic, political or market conditions. Theodore Wolfstich, Wolfstich Capital's Managing Member, and/or Michael Broad, Investment Adviser Representative, review all accounts.

Account custodians are responsible for providing monthly or quarterly account statements which reflect the positions (and current pricing) in each account as well as transactions in each account, including fees paid from an account. Account custodians also provide prompt confirmation of all trading activity, and year-end tax statements, such as 1099 forms. Wolfstich Capital provides access to a secure portal where clients may access written holdings and performance reports as needed.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

As noted above, Wolfstich Capital receives an economic benefit from TD Ameritrade in the form of support products and services it makes available to Wolfstich Capital and other independent investment advisors that have their clients maintain accounts at TD Ameritrade. These products and services, how they benefit our firm, and the related conflicts of interest are described in Item 12 - Brokerage Practices. The availability of TD Ameritrade's products and services to Wolfstich Capital is based solely on our participation in the programs and not in the provision of any particular investment advice.

From time to time, Wolfstich Capital may enter into arrangements with third parties ("Solicitors") to identify and refer potential clients to Wolfstich Capital. Consistent with legal requirements under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, Wolfstich Capital enters into written agreements with Solicitors under which, among other things, Solicitors are required to disclose their compensation arrangements to prospective clients before they enter into an agreement with Wolfstich Capital.

Item 15 - Custody

TD Ameritrade is the custodian of nearly all client accounts at Wolfstich Capital. From time to time however, clients may select an alternate broker to hold accounts in custody. In any case, it is the custodian's responsibility to provide clients with confirmations of trading activity, tax forms and at least quarterly account statements. Clients are advised to review this information carefully, and to notify Wolfstich Capital of any questions or concerns. Clients are also asked to promptly notify Wolfstich Capital if the custodian fails to provide statements on each account held.

From time to time and in accordance with Wolfstich Capital's agreement with clients, Wolfstich Capital will provide additional reports. The account balances reflected on these reports should be compared to the balances shown on the brokerage statements to ensure accuracy. At times there may be small differences due to the timing of dividend reporting, pending trades and other similar issues.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

As described above under Item 4 - Advisory Business, Wolfstich Capital manages portfolios on a discretionary basis. This means that after an Investment Plan is developed for the client's investment portfolio, Wolfstich Capital will execute that plan without specific consent from the client for each transaction. For discretionary accounts, a Limited Power of Attorney ("LPOA") is executed by the client, giving Wolfstich Capital the authority to carry out various activities in the account, generally including the following: trade execution; the ability to request checks on behalf of the client; and, the withdrawal of advisory fees directly from the account. Wolfstich Capital then directs investment of the client's portfolio using its discretionary authority. The client may limit the terms of the LPOA to the extent consistent with the client's investment advisory agreement with Wolfstich Capital and the requirements of the client's custodian. The discretionary relationship is further described in the agreement between Wolfstich Capital and the client.

Wolfstich Capital has a few legacy accounts that were originally set up under a non-discretionary arrangement. For these accounts, the client has executed an LPOA, which allows Wolfstich Capital to carry out approved actions in the portfolio. However, in accordance with the investment advisory agreement between Wolfstich Capital and the client, Wolfstich Capital does not implement trading recommendations or other actions in the account unless and until the client has approved the recommendation or action. As with discretionary accounts, clients may limit the terms of the LPOA, subject to Wolfstich Capital's agreement with the client and the requirements of the client's custodian. Wolfstich Capital no longer offers this service.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

As a policy and in accordance with Wolfstich Capital's client agreement, Wolfstich Capital does not vote proxies related to securities held in client accounts. The custodian of the account will normally provide proxy materials directly to the client. Clients may contact Wolfstich Capital with questions relating to proxy procedures and proposals; however, Wolfstich Capital generally does not research particular proxy proposals.

Item 18 - Financial Information

Wolfstich Capital does not require nor solicit prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client, six months or more in advance, and therefore has no disclosure required for this item.

Item 19 - Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

As the principal executive officer and management person of Wolfstich Capital, Mr. Wolfstich's background information is provided elsewhere in this Form ADV. Other than this, no disclosure is required under this item.

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Theodore J. Wolfstich (year of birth 1972) is Principal and Managing Director of Wolfstich Capital. Ted has been actively involved in the financial services field since 1996 assisting high-net worth individuals with their investment strategies. He has spent his career closely working with clients by understanding their financial status, diagnosing their needs and skillfully determining the appropriate financial roadmap for their future. At Wolfstich Capital, Ted works with a broad-based clientele delivering comprehensive financial planning and investment management strategies. He acts as a centerpiece to a clients’ financial life, coordinating all elements of investment, retirement, tax, estate and insurance planning.

Before founding Wolfstich Capital in 2007, Ted worked for ten years at Charles Schwab & Co., most recently as a Vice President and Financial Consultant in their Burlington, Massachusetts office. While at Charles Schwab, he assisted a client base with a net worth of more than $300 million. His client relationships included assessing investment needs, facilitating communication with appropriate money managers and helping to execute financial strategies that offer long-term solutions.

Prior to working in Burlington, Ted was the Branch Manager of Charles Schwab's Los Angeles retail business development office located in Beverly Hills, California. He managed 10 financial sales employees who were responsible for asset aggregation and client development. Ted coordinated the firm's retail business development for the greater Los Angeles area and managed the lead flow of thousands of prospective clients, helping to make sure their financial needs were met.

Ted holds a Bachelor of Science from the State University of New York and is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional*, Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC), Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), and a Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor* (CRPC).

Ted has been quoted in the Boston Globe newspaper and on WBZ radio. He is an active member of the Medfield Lions Club. He lives in Medfield with his wife, Christina, and their daughters, Charlotte and Alexandra.

* The CFP® certification is granted by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (CFP Board). To attain the certification, the candidate must complete the required educational, examination, experience and ethics requirements set forth by CFP Board. Certain designations, such as the CPA, CFA and others may satisfy the education component, and allow a candidate to sit for the CFP® Certification Examination. A comprehensive examination tests the candidate's ability to apply financial planning knowledge to client situations. Qualifying work experience is also required for certification. Qualifying experience includes work in the area of the delivery of the personal financial planning process to clients, the direct support or supervision of others in the personal financial planning process, or teaching all, or any portion, of the personal financial planning process. CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education accepted by CFP Board every two years.

 The ChFC is a financial planning designation for the insurance industry awarded by the American College of Bryn Mawr. ChFCs must meet experience requirements and pass exams covering finance and investing. They must have at least three years of experience in the financial industry, and have studied and passed an examination on the fundamentals of financial planning, including income tax, insurance, investment and estate planning.

 The CLU is a professional designation for individuals who wish to specialize in life insurance and estate planning. Individuals must complete five core courses and three elective courses, and successfully pass all eight two-hour, 100-question examinations in order to receive the designation.

* The CRPC is a professional designation awarded by the College for Financial Planning to individuals who complete a study program and pass a final multiple-choice examination. Successful applicants earn the right to use the CRPC designation with their names for two years. Every two years, CRPC professionals must complete 16 hours of continuing education and pay a small fee to continue using the designation. The CRPC Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, and addresses issues such as estate planning and asset management. CRPC candidates must comply with the Code of Ethics, which includes agreeing to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct and Terms and Conditions. Candidates must also disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct. Conferment of the designation is contingent upon the College for Financial Planning's review of matters either self-disclosed or which are discovered by the College that are required to be disclosed.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Advisers are required to disclose any material facts regarding certain legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of an adviser; however, Ted has no such disciplinary information to report. Any information regarding the disciplinary history of this individual would be available from the Massachusetts Securities Division.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Ted is not engaged in any other business activities.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Ted has no other income or compensation to disclose.

Item 6 - Supervision

As the sole owner of Wolfstich Capital, Ted supervises all duties and activities of the firm, and is responsible for all advice provided to clients. His contact information is on the cover page of this disclosure document.

Item 7 - State Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Michael Broad (year of birth 1951) joined Wolfstich Capital in 2015 as an Investment Adviser Representative. Since 1999, Michael has been the Principal and sole executive officer of Michael Broad, an unaffiliated Registered Investment Adviser.

Michael received a BA, summa cum laude, from the Amherst College in Mathematics and Economics in 1973. He graduated from Harvard Law School with a JD, cum laude, in 1976. Lastly, Michael obtained his Master Personal Financial Planning Program Certificate from Bentley College in 1999.

* A Juris Doctorate degree is the degree commonly conferred by law schools.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Advisers are required to disclose any material facts regarding certain legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of an adviser; however, Michael has no such disciplinary information to report. Any information regarding the disciplinary history of this individual would be available from the Massachusetts Securities Division.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Michael is also sole proprietor of an independent registered investment adviser licensed under his name. He provides advisory services to a few legacy clients of this separate advisory firm. Other than this, Michael is not engaged in any other investment-related business or occupation, and does not earn compensation for the sale of any other products or services.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Other than stated above, Michael has no other income or compensation to disclose.

Item 6 - Supervision

As the sole owner of Wolfstich Capital, Ted Wolfstich supervises all duties and activities of the firm, and is responsible for all advice provided to clients. His contact information is on the cover page of this disclosure document.

Item 7 - State Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

In addition to Item 3 above, state-registered advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any event in which a supervised person of the firm was found liable in certain legal proceedings, or was the subject of a bankruptcy petition. Michael has no event to disclose with respect to this item.
